submitting to His will for their lives, both individually and corporately, that is a church that is experiencing true growth. At the same time, a church can be adding to its rolls weekly, have huge numbers, and still be spiritually stagnant.

Here for the first time is the story of how the Meserete Kristos Church began in Ethiopia and, using cell groups, grew rapidly during seventeen years under Marxism. Increasing 20 percent a year, MKC is more than a hundred thousand strong and has spread to every region of Ethiopia. This book witnesses to God at work among twentieth-century Anabaptists on two continents.

Many begin the Daniel Fast (or ANY FAST)

as a part of their New Year resolutions. Some churches even do it corporately, which is a wonderful thing. It is a great time to come together in unity, denying yourself certain foods, all for the purpose of renewing your walk with the Savior. You want to clean out the old and make way for the new! Jesus also said that some things just do not come about by prayer alone! When the Church is fasting, the enemy is intimidated. Satan isn't worried one bit when we are content with the status quo. But if the Church ever realizes the power it possesses through prayer and fasting, the devil would be on the run! Fasting will change your life. It will draw you closer to God, help you see things about yourself that you need to change, allow God to dig out the ugly and replace it with His grace, and lift those heavy burdens from you that you just don't need to carry or worry about any longer. With God's help, I have attempted to give you, the reader, a road map to follow that can be a help to you on this journey. Fasting isn't about just going without food. If done properly, it can propel you to new heights in your relationship with God. I pray you find this book a tool that you will refer to again and again as you make fasting a regular part of your spiritual life.

Based on God's vision for churches in Matthew 28:18-20, this book presents sound methods for making disciples, winning the lost for Christ, and planting new churches.

90% of the churches in the world have less than 200 people. What if that's not a bad thing? What if smallness is an advantage God wants us to use, not a problem to fix?

- Practical and theoretical instruction for mainline church planting
- Written specifically for the Episcopal Church, but with mainline applications, by a well-known, widely respected author

The Episcopal Church has recognized that planting new churches is a high priority through the Mission Enterprise Zones initiative, which provides grant funding for new worshiping communities, in partnership with dioceses. While there is significant literature and training available for church planters in evangelical contexts, very little is available for planters in the Episcopal/mainline context. This book addresses how to rise up and train leaders for the difficult task of planting new churches in the twenty-first century. It answers the essential questions, such as why should we plant churches, what models of church planting are most successful, what
