Imperialism, Nationalism, and Islamism in the Middle East" looks at how the Rojava Revolution came into being in the largely-Kurdish communities of northern Syria from 2012 onwards. It also gives an overview of the context within which this experience arose. The main purpose of this book, however, is to summarise what has been happening in Rojava, evaluate the ideology behind it, and show why it is a truly inspirational process.

The Kurdish liberation movement never had any illusion about the long-term partnership with imperialism but, conjuncturally, necessarily had to work with an imperialist power against a fascist army (an army which was, in fact, a result of the conditions of the imperialist world order).
