Thailand may have had tourists nervous with reports of it not reopening for the rest of the year, but there's some good news now: the popular destination is set to introduce a new 90-day, long-term visa for travellers to bring visitors back to the country. Those who get approval for this special tourist visa will have to quarantine for 14 days and will have to book their stay for the full ...

Nicely produced edition bought for my Potter-mad teenage daughter to help her improve her French. As she can practically recite the books in English, this should be a useful and painless teaching aid for her. We had looked at other editions of this book in French last time we were in France, but this one is far nicer.
